SUIT HITS LEGALITY OF WATER TAX

RECOVERY OF 50 CENT FEE ASKED

OAKLAND, Dec. 14.—Attacking the validity of the 50 cent Eastbay Municipal Water District tax, 21 taxpayers today filed suit in the Alameda county superior court today, seeking recovery of tax money paid under protest.

Named as defendants were E. T. Planer, county tax collector, and his bondsman, and the water district.

The suit asks that the tax by which the district hopes to collect $2,100,000 during the current year be declared invalid on the grounds that the law specifically prohibits the collection of any tax by the district for any purpose after the sale of water; that the state constitution prohibits any political subdivision of the state from agreeing to pay off any obligation incurred by a private corporation and that public corporations are forbidden by law to incur obligations exceeding the revenue for one year.

The suit directly hits the action of the district in taking over the $21,000,000 indebtedness of the Eastbay water company.

Those bringing the action include the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco; the General Engineering and Drydock company; Mrs. Isabel Creed; J. R. Miller of the California Cotton Mills and the Real Property Investment corporation.

James H. Boyer, attorney for the plaintiffs declared today, that "if we win, the purchase of the Eastbay Water company will be invalidated and the directors of the water districts will be liable for $1,500,000 already expended by them."

LOS ANGELES FACES GRAVE SHORTAGE OF WATER

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(U.P.)—This city—home of 1,500,000 persons—tonight was alarmed over the possibility of a water shortage.

So serious has the threatened shortage become that the board of water and power commissioners has made a city-wide appeal asking elimination of all unnecessary uses of water.

The commission's appeal said that the city's storage tanks contain 38 per cent less water than on the same date last year and that no rainfall of consequence is in sight.

No Rainfall

Southern California has yet to receive rainfall in any quantity this winter. The storm which bathed the rest of the state this week ending a period of economic uncertainty for ranchers and stockmen, failed to reach the extreme south.

Following are the suggestions made to citizens by the commission:

Do not waste water on lawns or shrubs. It will be necessary to discontinue lawn and shrub watering unless the needless wasting of water is eliminated.

Rules Made

Do not waste water through leaking plumbing connections. Millions of gallons of water are being wasted into sewers through leaking bathroom and kitchen outlets in Los Angeles.

Do not waste water by watering on your driveway and sidewalk when a broom will do the work just as well.

Do not allow water to run from the faucet continuously when you are in the bathroom. Turn the water on only when you need it; turn it off as soon as possible.

Bighearted Maw

MARTHA MOIR, on the witness stand, told the judge that her mother-in-law gave her all her cast off clothing and made her wear them. Hence the divorce suit.

TAX SLASH PASSED BY U. S. SENATE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(U.P.)—A $160,000,000 "Christmas gift" tax reduction was voted by the Senate today.

The Hawley resolution to cut normal individual and corporate one per cent on 1929 incomes only was adopted in the same form as passed by the House.

President Hoover will get it Monday and will sign soon thereafter, making the fifth Republican tax cut a sort of Christmas present to the American people.

The Senate vote was 63 to 14. The House passed the resolution 282 to 17 on December 5. It was drafted and introduced Dec. 2, the opening day of the regular session, by Chairman Hawley of the Ways and Means committee, embodying the proposals made by Secretary of Treasury Mellon and approved by Republican and Democratic leaders of both houses.

The Senate's action came after two days of debate featured by a farm bloc revolt which failed to gain much headway because of the coalition of regular Republicans and Democrats in favor of the measure.

Repeated efforts to amend the resolution in one form or another were voted down overwhelmingly.

The administration wanted the measure adopted before Christmas for its beneficial effect on individuals and corporations making up their budgets for next March 15 for incomes and profits made during the current year. It applies only on taxes on 1929 incomes.

The normal rates will be reduced from five, four and one and a half per cent to four, three and one-half of one per cent respectively, and the corporation rate will be cut from 12 to 11 per cent. No other tax rates are changed.

It is estimated business will benefit to the extent of $90,000,000 and individuals about $70,000,000.

5 HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Five Mare Island workers suffered injuries last night when the car in which they were riding collided with another machine at Manila and San Pablo avenues in El Cerrito.

The injured:

The five men were riding with W. D. Karr, 634 Carmel street, Berkeley, driver of the car; J. W. Potter, 826 Marin avenue, Albany; David Anderson, 1825 Ashby street, Berkeley and W. A. Hoffman, 1711 Derby street, Berkeley. These men were uninjured.

According to police reports, the nine men in Karr's machine were enroute home from the Mare Island navy yards when the machine struck a car driven by Theodore D. Miller, 1131 Norwell street, El Cerrito, who was driving across San Pablo avenue. The force of the collision turned Karr's machine over. William was uninjured.

Engoldt and Holt were treated at the Alta Bates hospital in Berkeley while the others were treated at the Humboldt hospital in Albany.

MURDER HINT IN BEAUTY DEATH

PACIFIC GROVE, Dec. 14.—(U.P.)—Whether Mrs. Vera Power, attractive 35-year old divorcee was murdered or committed suicide remained a mystery here tonight, but authorities let it be known they were seeking the man with whom she had a telephone argument, just before she was last seen alive.

A theory that she might have died from accident, through an overdose of a sedative or opiate, was practically abandoned today, according to announcement from Arayle Campbell, Monterey county deputy district attorney.

Final judgment on this possibility, however, awaited results of an autopsy ordered by Coroner J. A. Cornett. The woman's stomach was being analyzed by Cecil Grotter, Monterey chemist.

Presence of poison would not prove either murder or suicide, but would establish that it was not from accident or natural causes.

Authorities sought a man who called Mrs. Power from Monterey, stating that he saw her at once. Mrs. Roy E. Sutton of Carmel, owner of the rented cottage in which Mrs. Power was found dead Wednesday, told officials of the telephone call, and said that Mrs. Power left the house hurriedly.

Identification of Mrs. Power did not come until last night, when Nat Levin, a brother who had rented the cottage for her, arrived from San Francisco. He said she was divorced in San Francisco six months ago from Dr. H. D. Arcey Power, professor of medicine at the University of Berlin.

The woman's former husband previously was widely known in California as a lecturer, and from 1916 to 1918 was dean of the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

The minister told the court he knew Gregory at a party where the check disappeared but that he knew nothing of it.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—(U.P.)—Low hanging clouds and drizzling rain held air mail planes land-bound throughout the United States east of the Rockies today.

Mail intended for airplane transportation was being carried by train and was given preference over regular mail.

R. SAUNDERS STARS FOR TROY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(U.P.)—The individual brilliance of Russell Saunders, superior reserve power and a swarming sun enabled Southern California to humble Carnegie Tech, 45 to 13, before 40,000 football fans here today.

The eastern team battled the home eleven on even terms thru the first half but it wilted completely under the continual pounding and Southern California scored almost when it willed.

Saunders was responsible for turning the tide.

Saunders Stars

He did everything a good back could do and when he left the field it was to hear the greatest ovation given any athlete since All-American Morley Drury played his last game for Southern California.

Among his other accomplishments, Saunders gained more than 150 yards from scrimmage. The second two of the Trojan touchdowns and was indirectly responsible for two more.

On suggestive occasions in the third quarter he drove 65 and then 50 yards to score. On the first march he carried the ball seven out of eight times. His total yardage in the drive was 60. On the second march he toted the pigskin six out of seven times to cross the goal after having aggregated 45 yards.

HOOVER ASKS REDS RELEASE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(U.P.)—President Hoover suggested to the Washington police officials late today that the 33 communist demonstrators who had paraded before the White House two hours earlier be released from jail.

"A night in jail is only doing them a favor of cheap martyrdom," the president said in a formal statement.

"The demonstration came shortly after the House foreign affairs committee formally reported out for passage the Porter resolution to carry out President Hoover's proposal for a commission to investigate conditions in Haiti. Passage of the resolution probably in the next few weeks by Congress is virtually assured."

White House and metropolitan police stopped the communists as they marched down the street, and seized from them about 30 placards.

Hoover was in the executive offices about 100 yards away from the scene of the arrests, but as far as is known he did not see the incident.

PONTIAC SIX LAUDED BY OWNER

The claims made by the Oakland Motor Car company at the time they introduced the present line of Pontiac big sixes—that the line provided big car performance combined with small car economy of operation—have been borne out by the reports of many Pontiac owners, states J. P. Strom, local Oakland and Pontiac dealer.

"Soon after the line was brought out the first of this year, we began to get favorable reports of Pontiac performance, and these reports continue to come in, many of them received now being the result of many months of hard usage, during which time the various cars have traveled thousands of miles," Strom asserts.

"From the fleet users who selected Pontiacs we get favorable reports of the dependability of the Pontiac, the splendid service the cars render and the low operating and maintenance costs. While fleet service is often more strenuous than that given ordinary cars, Pontiac's performance in fleet use can well be considered by prospective buyers, for these carefully compiled records and the statistical information gained from them are an indisputable factor commanding serious attention.

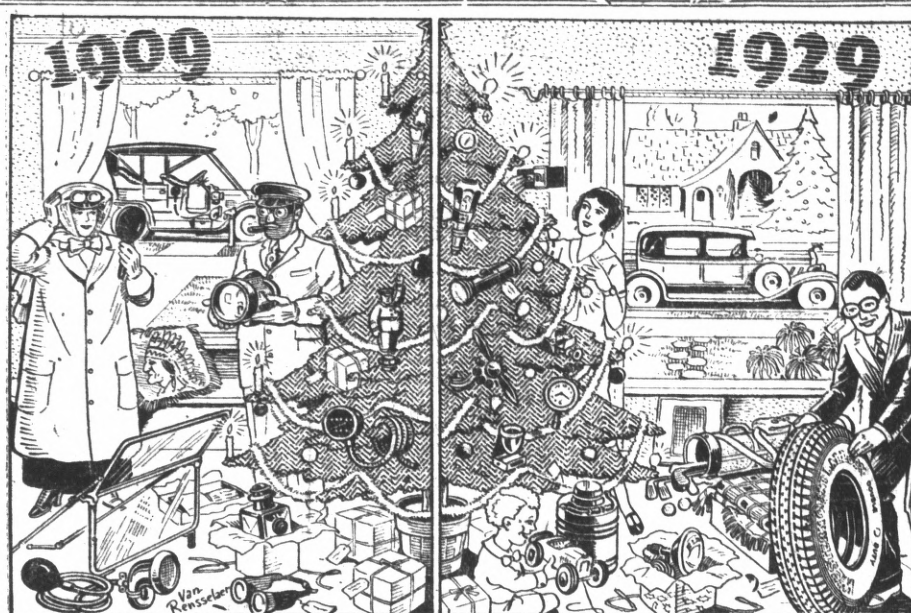

"One of the outstanding examples of Pontiac economy," Manley says, "is that of a large fleet user which maintained a fleet of 996 automobiles of thirty-three different makes. This company, from records kept on all cars during the year of 1928, found that their Pontiacs were the least expensive to operate, showing a saving of 1 cent a mile operating and maintenance costs over any other low priced car used in their fleet.

"This same performance and saving is available for any Pontiac big six purchaser, whether he is buying a family car or a fleet. In addition to the factor of big car performance and economical operation, the Pontiac is a distinctive line with its smart Fisher bodies and its numerous safety features."

Keep Check On Car Ignition

Check the insulation of cables and wiring on your car. Breaks in the insulation are likely to cause short circuits, and possibly set your car on fire. Besides, the rainy season is approaching, and the cars with poorly insulated electrical circuits are the ones that won't start when they get wet.

Good Old Days

TWENTY YEARS ago it was a problem to pick out a suitable automobile accessory for a Christmas gift. Nowadays, according to the Western Auto Supply company, there are scores of accessories that add to motoring joys.

CAR ACCESSORY MAKES GOOD GIFT

Twenty years ago anyone who contemplated giving something for the car for Christmas was faced with an expensive and hasty problem unless he gave goggles, linen duster, auto-face, driving gauntlets, driving veil, or laprobe for the driver.

As far as actual accessories for the car were concerned, the selection was extremely limited. A windshield, auto top, gas lamps, speedometer, or bulb horn, were acceptable gifts as few cars were equipped with such devices at the automobile factories. High prices usually prohibited the giving of such Christmas presents so automobile gifts were usually confined to personal apparel for the motorist.

Nowadays there are scores of conveniences and ornaments to improve the service and appearance of the latest model cars that add to touring comfort as well. "Something for the car" is becoming a by-word and is assuming a national aspect as the holiday season approaches. With the almost universal use of the motor car today the giving of Christmas gifts that can be used to adorn and increase the efficiency of automobiles offers opportunity to give practical gifts that will be appreciated for years to come, according to Clifford Johnson, local manager of the Western Auto Supply store.

From observations along automobile row, accessories for automobiles rate high on Christmas gift lists. In addition to their general usefulness and popularity, automobile merchandise is favored because of the wide price range. The buyer can spend just as much or as little as he pleases and yet be sure that the article he chooses will be appreciated.

It is almost useless to try to list the various accessories and motoring comforts that can be purchased and given as presents for nearly everyone knows the things that an automobile needs. Many new and enhancing additions that make for comfort and pleasure have appeared recently in the shops of those who deal in automotive merchandise, as an inspection of the Western Auto Supply company stocks will reveal.

ACCIDENT TOLL CUT

Nineteen cities with a population of over 100,000 reduced the total number of fatal accidents in 1928, according to the California State Automobile association.

HIGHWAYS TO BE REINFORCED SOON

State forces are to carry on quite an extensive program of base reinforcing on the highways in southern Mendocino Lake, northern Sonoma and San Mateo counties during the next few months, reports the touring department of the National Automobile club.

The work programmed consists of scarfing, re-shaping and adding additional road metal to five miles on the Redwood highway from the forks of the Ukiah road, 3 miles north of Ukiah, to Forsythe creek. The high crown and narrow paved section will be torn up, widened to 2 feet, the curves super-elevated and an oil surface will be placed early next spring.

Work of a similar nature will be done on about 5 miles of the road from the forks of the Ukiah road to Upper Lake, starting from a point about nine miles east of the junction of the Redwood highway and confined to portions of the existing road between this point and Upper Lake.

On the Skyline Boulevard in San Mateo county, 6 miles of roadway will be so treated. The mileage being confined to the road between the Tintonian Road and the Crystal Springs golf course.

To obtain the best results this work must be done during the winter months and we are making every effort to plan our work so as to inconvenience the motorists as little as possible. There will be times when it will be necessary to route motorists over short sections of loose gravel for a short period of time and proper warning signs and flagmen will be placed to handle each situation as conditions may require.

Our efforts are to give the best possible service to motorists during the course of the work and to provide a good safe roadway for the heavy motor traffic next summer.

We anticipate no trouble or serious inconvenience on this work and ask the cooperation of the motorists using these roads during our operations.

Instrument Board Warns Of Trouble

Form the habit of regularly allowing the eye to glance at the instrument board, suggests L. G. Evans, general service manager, National Automobile club. Any discrepancies in the functioning of the fan-belt, water pump, oil pump, or generator will become immediately apparent to those checking their instruments.

NASH LAUDS BUSINESS IN U.S.

KENOSHA, Wis., Dec. 14.—Another outstanding American industrial leader today contributed further encouragement to the nation in the way of his expressed conviction that general business conditions were on a most sound footing.

C. W. Nash, president of the Nash Motors company, in a personal letter to the Nash dealer organization which will reach approximately 12,000 Nash dealers and salesmen throughout the country stated: "There is nothing wrong with general business conditions in our country at all."

Continuing, Nash said: "Now that some parts of the country are sobering up from the effects of their stock market speculation, it might not be amiss to pause for a moment and take stock of ourselves and of general business conditions."

"Nothing Wrong"

"Let me say that in my judgment there is nothing wrong with general business in our country at all. It is a fact that in many sections of our country they do not know, neither are they interested in what has been going on in the stock market."

"I never have known a time when general business conditions were on a more sound footing than at the present time. The country has been blessed with a beautiful harvest; prices of farm products are at a very satisfactory point; stock has done exceptionally well and has brought a splendid price. Other commodities coming from the ground—such as copper, iron, etc., are at a very good price. What more could you expect? The history of the American people is that when they have money they spend it. Our monetary situation never was in better shape during my lifetime. There is no shortage of money; the banks are loaded with cash. The indications are that we are going to have cheaper money in 1930 than in 1929; and just the moment those who have been intoxicated with speculation will find that business will go along about in a normal way."

Autos Suffer

"I am willing to admit that in some sections of the country right now, on account of everybody being upset, the automobile business is suffering a little. In other parts of the territory sales are running ahead of last year at this time."

"My opinion is that everyone who goes after business in an aggressive manner will be surprised at the amount of business to be secured."

"I also am impressed with the belief that next spring will see a very normal business, and those who still have confidence in the country in which we live, and will go to work and work hard and discontinue talking panics, will be the chaps who will come out on the top of the heap."

Jack Frost At Yosemite Now

In glancing through the list of Who's Who at Yosemite, the National Automobile club notices the name of Jack Frost, internationally known artist who has registered there for the winter. He lost no time in getting to work upon his arrival and the entire valley is a riot of autumnal colorings. The trees and shrubs of the canyon walls have yielded to the expert touch of his magic brush. The oak, dogwood, and the broad maple leaves are now more colorful than ever, but will soon begin to fall.

Heading the coming of winter, there is unusual activity among the wild animals of Yosemite. The bears are eagerly in search of food, the squirrels scamper merrily away to their hiding places with acorns, the deer are daily becoming more dependent upon the local residents for their subsistence, and the male tule elk in the paddocks are baying their shrill challenges.

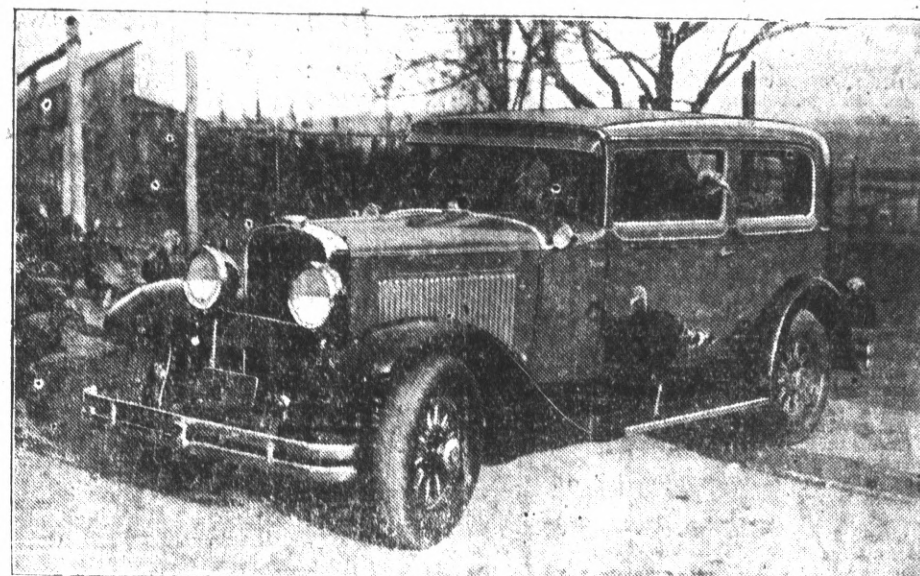

Right now is a most opportune time to call upon the National Automobile club for latest information relative to a trip to Yosemite.

Motor Towing Costs Figured

A total of $9,600,000,000 has been spent on motor towing alone by the American people this year, according to figures reported to the California State Automobile association by the Towing Board of the American Automobile association.

Eugene Biscalluz, Superintendent of the California Highway Patrol, is quoted by the National Automobile Club as having stated that 50 per cent of intersection accidents may be avoided through the observance of the right-of-way law.

Four Wheel Brakes Replace Emergency

Good four-wheel brakes have been responsible for the emergency or parking brake falling into more general disuse, remarks L. G. Evans, general service manager for the National Automobile club. In many places the law calls for a supplemental brake system that will stop the car in a certain distance. Unless it is used the owner never will know how adequate or inadequate this system actually is.

Automobile Needs Delicate Touch

Entirely apart from what the woman's influence has had to do with it, the modern automobile requires a delicate touch in driving, remarks L. G. Evans, general service manager for the National Automobile club. Each succeeding model seems to require increased delicacy of handling. Owners who realize this point and try to get the "feel" of their new cars quickly are the ones whose repair bills usually are lowest.

The Greatest Performer in its field!

Performance—that's the quality in the Pontiac Big Six which enables it to stand out among all low-priced sixes. It is one reason why thousands of motorists, new to Pontiac, are now driving this fine product of General Motors.

For Pontiac has higher top speed and faster acceleration than any other low-priced six—as proved by the "fifth wheel," most accurate of all speed measuring devices. Its 60 brake horsepower developed at 3000 r.p.m. is greater than that of any six in its field. It has greater safety and ease of control because of such features as the non-squeak, internal-expanding, dirt-and-weather-proof four-wheel brakes—the largest in brake band area and most efficient to be found on any six of comparable price. And it has greater reliability, as well, because of its aircraft type bronze-backed main bearings, the adjustable pressure feed lubricating system, crankcase ventilation to keep water out of the motor oil, and the positive pump fuel feed.

As for economy, a large corporation operating 996 automobiles of 33 different makes found Pontiac's operating cost in 1928 to be one cent a mile less than that of any other low-priced six. And today's Pontiac Big Six is even more economical than previous models.

COOLIDGE DAM VISITED BY BUICK

Completion of the Coolidge dam at San Carlos, Ariz., marks the beginning of an irrigation project that will bring 100,000 acres of heretofore desert land under cultivation. The dam was finished just one year ago, but has been accessible as an attraction for motorists only since last spring, when the splendid new 57 miles of highway between San Francisco and Globe was opened to public travel.

Coolidge dam was built by the department of the interior bureau of Indian affairs and is of a new design that characterizes it as a work of artistic creation. From an engineering standpoint, the dam represents new theories and practices in dam structure; and the entire project is destined to become one of the outstanding irrigation problems undertaken by the government in reclaiming the fertile desert wastelands for agricultural purposes.

The lake created by the dam is enlarging rapidly according to a report received by C. C. Kratzer, local Buick dealer from a 1929 Buick party who visited the region recently. Already the lake is 122 feet deep at the dam and extends up the river for 11 miles, the tourists reported. The party in their 1929 Buick coupe, went from Los Angeles to San Carlos by way of Yuma, Phoenix and Globe.

Started In 1927

"Work on the dam commenced in Jan. of 1927, with the first concrete poured in the following November," the report to the local Buick-Marquette dealership explained. "The dam construction was finished in October 1928, at which time the holes at the bottom of the dam were plugged up and the lake started filling."

"The dam's height above bedrock is 250 feet, and necessitated an excavation of 317,000 cubic yards of dirt and rock. Thirty-five thousand tons of reinforcing steel are in the structure, and 204,000 cubic yards of concrete were poured. The length of the central buttresses at the base is 270 feet, with the total overall length of the structure being 920 feet.

"In design, the dam is unique because of the new principle of 'egg shell' construction. Three of these egg-shaped domes are incorporated in the dam, the maximum span of the domes being 180 feet. The engineers claim that these domes afford maximum strength with a minimum amount of material.

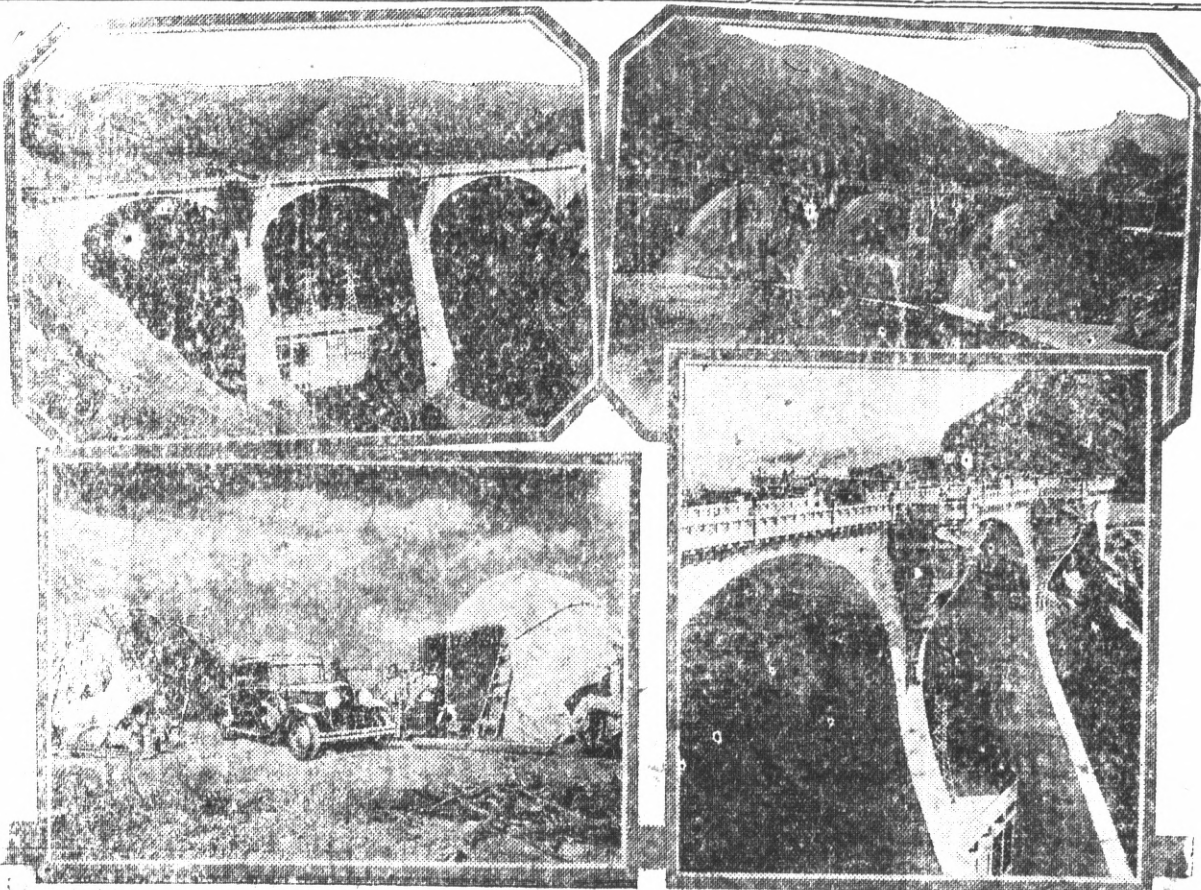

Road Flooded

"The lake is filling rapidly, and when the water goes over the spillways the lake will be 25 miles long and three miles in width, containing 1,200,000 acre feet of water.

"Already a great deal of the San Carlos Indian reservation that bordered the old San Carlos-Globe road is under water. During our visit to the region, we topped for a short visit to one of the small Apache Indian villages, where the Indians live in their picturesque wigwags. The Buick party told Tuttle.

"These Apaches are descendants of the old Chiricahua Apaches, of whom Geronimo was the chieftain for many years during their struggles against the white man's domination. While many of the present generation of Apaches retain their former mode of living and tribal customs, they have attended school and speak English well.

Out Where Irrigation Begins

COOLIDGE DAM, which was started in 1927 and is rapidly nearing completion, has been made accessible to motor cars by completion of a new road from Stafford to Globe, Ariz. A Buick party recently made a trip to the dam. Downstream view of the dam is shown in the upper left while the great lake formed by the barrier is shown at the upper right. San Carlos Indians were visited by a Buick coupe (lower left). Huge concrete eagles which add to beauty of the highway are shown at lower right.

Mexican May Kill Wife's Lover Now

Adm. Purms

The territory to be brought under irrigation by the Coolidge dam embraces some 100,000 acres of land in the Casa Grande valley. As a result of the dam, developments in that region are going ahead at a fast pace.

A fine quality of pines and grapes are grown in that region from irrigation projects carried on in a small scale during past years.

In addition to the irrigation water provided by the dam, a factor of secondary importance is the electrical development at the dam which will generate 10,000 horsepower, which will be available for domestic and other use in the towns of Casa Grande, Hice and Hayden. With the Coolidge dam, a development paralleling that which resulted from the Roosevelt dam for the Salt River valley is expected for the Casa Grande region.

CANADA FLIERS TO HUNT U.S. AVIATOR

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 14.—UP—The blazing torch, dropped so recently when the frozen Arctic gave up the long missing MacAlpine, was held aloft here again tonight when a little army of Canada's finest flyers volunteered to scour the Siberian wastes for the lost Carl Ben Eielson and his mechanic, Earl Borsland.

Cognizant of the dangers before them, eight veteran aviators under the command of Capt. H. W. "Doc" Oaks, cheerfully paid the Arctic a bow of respect and laid plans for the hazardous dash into the almost unknown.

Eielson, who gained fame by his flight over the North Pole with the explorer Wilkins, has been missing since Nov. 9, when he and Borsland set out from Alaska for the ice-rocked trading ship.

Capt. Oaks and his companions, several of whom saw service in France with the Royal Flying Corps and the Royal Canadian Air Force, planned to proceed at once to Vancouver or Seattle, outfit their expedition and then move on toward their great adventure of mercy.

Planes already have been shipped from Montreal by the Fairchild Aviation company which sponsors the searching party.

Pat Reed, veteran "bad weather" pilot, a member of the famous war time North Sea patrol and one of the men who flew thousands of dangerous miles before MacAlpine and his seven explorer companions recently appeared at a Hudson Bay post, will blaze the trail to Alaska.

Once in the Arctic the little army will work under "Doc" Oaks, one of the best pilots alive, winner of the 1927 McKee Trophy for meritorious service in aviation and a veteran of three thousand flying hours.

Bill Broatch, Sam McCauley, Gifford Swirtman, Hec Tolney, W. E. Hughes, and W. J. McDough were the others who responded to Eielson's call—members of a real, Royal Air force.

CHURCHGAGERS CLASH TUESDAY

One of the greatest games ever played in the Y. M. C. A. Church league will probably be witnessed when the First Presbyterians of the A division tangle with the First Baptists Tuesday night at 7:15 o'clock at the "Y" gymnasium. The Grace Lutherans and the San Pablo Baptists will furnish the excitement in the B division contest Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock.

The First Presbyterians and the First Baptists are recognized as two of the fastest squads in the church league, and neither have yet failed to provide a thrilling battle.

The Grace Lutherans-San Pablo Baptist clash is expected to be a hard fought contest, for both these aggregations possess a fine attack.

FISH GAME CLUB HOLDS BANQUET

The annual banquet of the El Cerrito Fish and Game Protective association was held last night at the Carquinez Golf club under the direction of W. P. Kelly, the president of the association.

Several well known sporting writers and officials of the associated sportsmen of California were the speakers at the meeting. More than 100 persons attended the banquet.

Oleum, Santa Fe Hoopsters Clash Tomorrow Night

The Oleum Union Oil cagers and the Santa Fe loop team will clash in the main event on the city league card tomorrow night at the high school at 8 o'clock. The Santa Fe Indians will meet the Nationals of the B division at 7 o'clock, while the Mastercraft Roofers will engage the Civic Center Tires at 9 o'clock.

Plenty of excitement is expected to be dishied up to the city league fans on tomorrow night's card. When two teams of the caliber of Oleum and Santa Fe come together, a generous amount of hard-fought basketball may be expected. Although nowhere near the top of the league, these two teams always show plenty of pep and speed.

The Mastercraft Roofers, holders of second place in the B division, will afford stiff opposition to the Civic Center Tires, who have maintained a stiff fight throughout the present season. Civic Center succeeded in defeating the Santa Fe Renegades 24 to 22 in a spectacular contest Thursday night. A magnificent comeback was made in the last half of the game by the Tires, who then presented a high-class brand of basketball.

MOTORS NINE TO MEET EAGLES

The second round of the Oakland Winter baseball league will open today with a clash between the Motors and the Oakland Eagles at the First street park, unless J. P. decides differently.

If the field is not in a fit condition for playing, the opening game of the last half of the league schedule will be postponed until next Sunday.

Young Doyle Taylor will start on the mound for the Motors if the game is held as scheduled today. The Motors will enter the fray confident of victory, for they easily outdistanced all other competitors during the first half of the league. The P. S. E. A. club of Oakland succumbed to the Motors by a score of 15 to 7 last Sunday in the first round trials.

The local nine also boasts a 7 to 4 win over the Oakland Eagles. However, the Eagles are reported to be maintaining a swift pace, and are expected to offer stiff opposition to the league-leading Motors.

SIX GOLFERS TO PLAY IN CUP TOURNEY

The semi finals of the directors cup tournament at the Carquinez golf club will get under way this morning at the club when six players tee off.

In the first match this morning, O. R. Maller will tangle with Bill Carlton. Preliminary dope has it that Carlton will take a victory.

In the second match C. A. Altman will meet L. K. Carroll. Altman took his last match from C. L. Gribble, four and three while Carroll won his match by default.

In the last game, H. Clavetto will meet H. Sandner. Clavetto defeated H. W. Dunlop four and three last week while Sandner defeated Clinton Smith two and one. The outcome of the match is doubtful.

The championship will probably be settled next week.

They are sentenced by Judge W. T. Kelley.

Speck and his wife, Clara were arrested in El Cerrito recently, charged with looking an apartment house owned by Mrs. Marion Hawkins. Original charges of burglary were dismissed, and Mrs. Stock was not charged with the lesser charge.

NEW LICENSES NECESSARY SOON

How about those new license plates for the car?

This is one of the little matters that will intrude itself on the Christmas shopping this year, and inquiries coming to the California State Automobile association brought the following statement from George S. Grant, manager of the license department of the Automobile association, which annually distributes more than 100,000 sets of plates.

License plates will be issued from all offices of the California State Automobile association. These are located in 31 cities of northern and central California.

The State Division of Motor Vehicles in Sacramento will accept mail applications for license to be delivered by mail before the close of the renewal season.

Over the counter issuance of 1930 license plates for motor vehicles will start from the various designated offices Dec. 16 and will continue until Jan. 15. Under new provisions of the Motor Vehicle Act, motorists who operate their cars after January 15 without evidence of having applied for the 1930 plates will be subject to arrest and a fine of from $5 to $500 for misdemeanor violation of the law.

The fee for renewal is $3 for all pleasure cars except electric pleasure cars which pay a fee of $13. Commercial cars pay in addition a graduated scale of weight fees.

Application for renewal of registration is made by presentation of the 1929 white certificate of registration. The pink certificate is not necessary unless the white one has been lost or is mutilated, or there is a change of legal ownership.

Motorists in presenting their certificate of registration as application for new license plates should be sure that address stated thereon is correct. Where the white certificate is lost or mutilated, the motorist presents the pink certificate and the data thereon is copied for the filing of an application for a duplicate white certificate of registration.

The law fixes a charge of 50 cents additional for issuance of a new white certificate.

Where the legal owner is being released, the pink certificate with the former legal owner's signature of release shown thereon must be presented along with the white and an extra fee of one dollar, fixed by law, for release must be paid.

Soccer Club To Meet Hayward Team Today

A fine exhibition of soccer will probably be witnessed by those who attend the contest between the Richmond Soccer club and the Hayward club today in Nichol park at 10:30 o'clock.

Tied for first place with the Scandias in the Eastbay Junior Soccer league, the local athletes are expected to be on the heavy end of the score when the final whistle blows today. Since the return of a large number of players to the Richmond soccer squad after the end of the American Legion football season, the local boys have soared up from mediocrity to the highest rank in the league.

The Richmondites were defeated 3 to 1 by the Scandias in a close contest for the Samuels junior cup last Sunday. The local boys are hoping to even this defeat next Sunday, when they will meet the Scandias at Nichol park at 10:30 o'clock.

Richmond's opponents in today's clash are expected to stage a great battle against the locals, who will be taxed to their utmost to stem Hayward's advance. Hayward gained a defeat over the Turnermans of Oakland last week which adds evil for the Richmond boys.

The Richmond lineup for today's game will be: Meyers, goal; Bracco, Jester, fullbacks; Baker, Thompson, Long, halfbacks; Grice, Owens, Crain, Ehler, Hood; reserves, Freese and Arnold.

Minnesota, Cards To Play In 1930

PALO ALTO, Dec. 14.—UP—A two year, home-and-home football pact with the University of Minnesota was announced today by the board of athletic control of Stanford university.

This makes Stanford's second intercollegiate pact for the years 1929 and 1931, arrangements having been previously made with Dartmouth.

The Cardinal players will journey to Minneapolis for the first of the games, scheduled for October 11. The 1931 game will be played in Stanford stadium, on a date to be selected later.

The first Dartmouth game will be played Nov. 29, 1929, here. The 1931 game is scheduled for the Saturday following the "big game" with California and probably will be played in Harvard stadium.

ROAD HOGS ADD TO HIGHWAY DANGERS

The "Road-Hog" is the inconsiderate "I should worry" type of driver who insists upon operating his automobile down the center of the street or highway or close to the center at a slow speed. He unconcernedly holds up lines of cars following him and needs not a warning to pull to the right. He has caused the taking of many lives, left many to suffer and become permanently maimed and has caused property damage running into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

When such a driver precedes you on the highway, you must either submit to his inconsideration or take a chance on your life by pulling to the left, thereby placing yourself in the path of oncoming traffic. You cannot pass him on his right as it is unlawful.

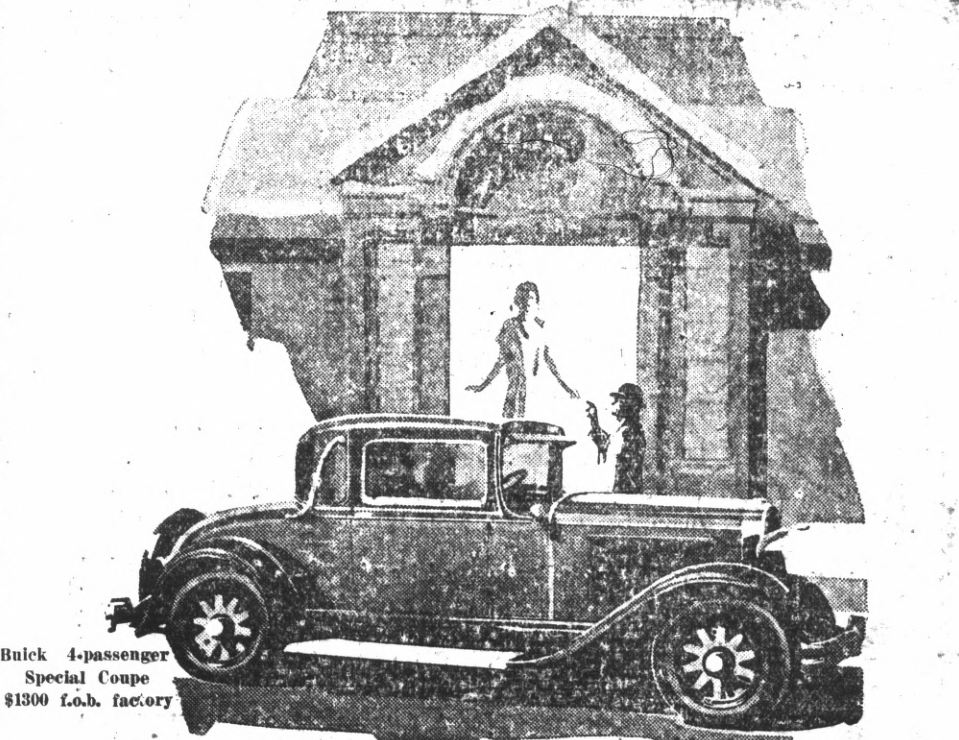

Statistics prove that a large number of accidents are caused by motorists driving to the left of the center of the highway in overtaking or passing a machine.

There should be no necessity for the driver of an overtaking vehicle to pull to the left of the center line but for the presence of the "Road-Hog".

In addition to creating a most dangerous situation, he is violating section 122 of the California Vehicle Act. This section makes it compulsory for operators to drive at all times close to the right hand side of the highway or road, notwithstanding what speed you may be traveling—slow or fast. If such practice was religiously followed, fewer cars would be forced to the left side of the road in passing and many accidents avoided.

When desiring to turn right at an intersection, the driver should see to it that he is on the extreme right hand edge of the street or highway upon approaching the intersection, otherwise he might find it necessary to pass in front of a vehicle to his right rear. Such a practice is most hazardous and is unlawful. In turning left, operators must keep next to the center of the street.

Make it a habit when driving to claim the extreme right side of the highway and to turn as outlined. In so doing you will serve valuably in reducing our great toll of accidents.

MOMENTS THAT EMBARRASS IN FILM

Probably the last word in embarrassing moments for a well-bred young man is that of a man who is seen in a room in which he believes he has heard the voices of the young man and his wife.

"Be nonchalant. Light a cigarette—may call it," says the cigarette ad regarding situations like this—but Grant Withers, leading man of "The Time, the Place and the Girl" is without the prescribed brand of smokes when this situation occurs in Warner Bros. screen version of the Hough, Adams and Howard comedy success which comes to the Fox-California theater Tuesday.

Instead of lighting a cigarette he opens the door as per the angry husband's request and the husband (John Davidson) doesn't find his wife—Betty Compson—as he expected.

Her place has suddenly been taken by a girl who risks her own good name to save the man she loves. Gertrude Olmsted plays the sacrificing girl and the remainder of the cast of this all-

Miss Helen Piele Paid Honor At Surprise Party

Miss Helen Piele was honored recently at a surprise party held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart P. Piele, 599 Pennsylvania avenue recently.

Games were enjoyed during the evening and refreshments were served.

The guests included: Mildred Lois Ferguson, Mattie Mae Smith, Laura La Londe, Eva Hansen, Winifred Curtis, Arlene Hucks, Leslie Ferguson, Edwin Brooks, Laverne Cooper, Henry Hoskins and Don Manies.

De Laps Return To Mira Vista

After having spent the past month in Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. DeLap and children, Tony and Christine are back in their home in Mira Vista.

Talking picture from the stage success includes James H. Kirk, Ward, Vivian Oakland, Gretchen Hardman, Irene Hainsman, Bert Joach, Gerald King and others.

The vehicle is a gay comedy of collegiate life, the adventures of a football star turned bond salesman with a bevy of flirtatious wives. The delightful situations and atmosphere of the original are to be found in the screen version of "The Time, the Place and the Girl."

Also on the program is a talk-comedy featuring Clark and McCullough in "Medicine men."

N. Y. SETTING FOR VILMA'S NEWEST

Vilma Banky comes to her public for the first time as a modern girl in everyday situations, in "This is Heaven," the attraction at the Fox-California theater today.

It is Miss Banky's second starring vehicle in her own right for Samuel Goldwyn. "This is Heaven" adds a new comedy note to Vilma Banky's acting which was only hinted at in her enormously successful starring picture, "The Awakening."

In this new picture she plays the role of a Hungarian girl immigrant tossed into the maelstrom of modern New York and finding love and happiness. The public who have been accustomed to seeing her in the stately gowns of a great lady or as the little peasant girl in "The Awakening," will now see her dressed as any other American girl dresses, earning her living by flipping hot cakes in a white-tiled restaurant and living in a Bronx apartment house.

Supporting her in "This is Heaven" are Fritz Ridgeway, who will always be remembered for her appearance with Theodore Roberts in "The Old Homestead," and Lucien Littlefield, with James Hall, one of the most prominent leading men in Hollywood, as her leading man. Alfred Santell, director of "The Patent Leather Kid," for Richard Barthelmess, who played the megaphone for the production.

All the characteristic features of New York life have been either photographed in New York itself or meticulously reproduced in the Goldwyn studios in Hollywood.

The "This is Heaven" company spent three weeks in New York last autumn photographing the exterior scenes on Ellis Island, in subway stations, on Fifth avenue and in the Bronx.

Talking Collegians and Fox Talking News are also on the program.

Aviators To Start Ocean Flight Today

The air line distance from Brazil to Natal, Brazil, the first objective of Larre Borges and Challe is approximately 3500 miles. The aviators are not seeking any records, their chief intent being to accomplish the distance to Natal safely and then fly down the Brazilian coast as far as possible. The chance of a record is remote.

Larre Borges and Challe made a test flight of 90 minutes today and reported their plane functioned perfectly. They plan on reaching the Brazilian coast, fly as far south as their fuel supply permits and then continue, zig-zagging to Montevideo, where Larre Borges' wife and six children await him. Their plane was not built for a distance record, but its flying radius is considered ample unless unusually adverse weather conditions are encountered to carry them safely across the Atlantic.

6 Months Term For Burglary

Carl E. Larsen of San Francisco, was yesterday sentenced to six months in the county jail when he pleaded guilty to a burglary charge before Justice of the Peace A. A. Alderson.

Larsen was caught entering rooms of a rooming house at 16 Tunnel avenue Thursday night by Mrs. Margaret Fowler, owner, and was arrested by Chief of Police Dan Cox, according to police reports.

When he was searched, several pieces of jewelry missing from the house, were found in Larsen's possession.

2946 Morgan Ave.

THE FONG WAN HERB CO.
Dear Mr. Fong—
I am writing this letter to express my gratitude for the splendid results and benefits I have received from the use of your Liver, Gall Bladder and Stomach Tonic. I have been suffering from these troubles for many years. The region of the liver was exceedingly sore and tender; so much so that even loose clothing
became irritating and uncomfortable. My stomach was also very sore to the touch and felt as if there were a lump the size of an egg in it. After meals, food which was very sour and burned the throat, was returned to the mouth.
This condition became worse over a period of a year.
During this time, I was treated by two doctors without any appreciable results. Both decided that an operation was necessary.
By good fortune, I came into contact with a man whom you had treated successfully for an Ulcerated Stomach, and he strongly urged me to take your treatment. This I did.
Results were noticeable the very first week, and now, after six weeks, I am entirely free from the terrible stabbing pains and the soreness over my Liver. My digestion is good. The old feeling of lassitude has completely disappeared and I feel much brighter and more energetic than
I have for years.
I am most happy to strongly recommend the herbs of the Fong Wan Herb Co. as prepared by you.
Wishing you unbounded success and again thanking you for what you have done for me, I am Very cordially yours,
CYRIL MAXW.

then help him to find a job. Ted pursues the valuable violin presenbred conductor, who insists on $200 and buys a saxophone. He repeats to Central Park to practice, know-

RECAPITULATION VII
"Are you Mr. Abrams' wife?"
"Oh, no!" she exclaimed in embarrassment. "I'm the governess."
"Isn't that great?" Ted grinned, relieved.
"Where are you going from here?" she asked him.
"That's what I want to know,"
answered Ted disconsolately.
"I'm leaving the children for the afternoon. Their father wants them to go to the movies with him.
Wait for me here, for about ten minutes, I'll be right back."
In a few moments she returned.
"Tell me your name," she demanded in her direct and friendly way.
When he answered, she told him that her name was Gail Wilson.
"Goodness! Have you been sick or working too hard since I saw you last? You look paler and thinner."
"No, I haven't been sick. I've been working hard—terribly busy."
He was so used to bluffing and lying to people to keep them from knowing how serious things were that he said it more or less automatically, but suddenly he blurted out, "Busy looking for a job."
She shook her head sympa-thetically.
"I know there's no harder work, and the wages are," she looked up at him pityingly, "are so little."
It was a relief to have to pretend. He had to pretend even with his mother and father.
"I've been all through it. I've walked up and down Broadway until I felt like a postman."
"And did everybody give you a letter to everybody else?"
"Of course, everything to get rid of you, but never mind now. Let's go where we can talk."
